HIS MIND A BLANK.

Mr. Eliffe Returns After a Mysterious Absence of Three Days.
INFORMATION WANTED of Richard E. Eliffe, left home on Friday, 24 years of age, about 5 feet, 8 inches, dark hair, short full beard and mustache, gray pants and brown derby hat. Mrs. R. E. Eliffe, 174 Madison Avenue.

At the flat, 3713 Madison Avenue it was said that Mr. Eliffe was until recently a responsible official of the Adams Express Company, Broadway and Twenty-third Street.

He returned home at 9.30 this morning in a confused and very excited condition and was unable to account for his mysterious disappearance the past three days. He is not a drinking man.

PROBABLY 55 PEOPLE LOST.

Bad End of an Expedition Which Started Out from Tacoma.

SPRINGFIELD, Wash., May 11.—John N. Grant, who has managed to get back to Tacoma after enduring incredible hardships, believes he is the only survivor of a party of fifty-six people who left Tacoma, April 21, to settle on land near the mouth of the Gwinnah River, but were beaten back by high seas and became short of food.

The party was on board the steamer Lucy Lowe, and the boat founder in the straits of Juan de Fuca. A search party will go out with Grant as a guide.

AN ITALIAN'S BRUTAL KICK.

Bocco Face Held for His Attack Upon Annie Kenny.

Rocco Face, who keeps a grocery store at 141 Mulberry Street, was held at the Tombs this morning charged with a brutal act. He claims he has been greatly annoyed by people collecting in front of his door. Last night Annie Kenny, a pretty young girl of sixteen, was driven from her door by a mob of men. He claims he was in the street when the mob was driven from the door with several complaints when Rocco rushed out, and it is alleged, kicked her in the stomach. She is in the sidewalk unconscious.

An Ill-Omened Collectorship.
SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.
New York, Oct. 11.—Mayor F. B. Downing, Collector of this port, who died yesterday, was the fourth collector here under the present Administration to die just when collecting duty on the duties of his office.

Curist Field Convalescent.
David Quincy Field was able to sit up in his chair today, and Dr. Hunt says that tomorrow or Wednesday he will take Mr. Field out for a ride.
